Why did Pope Francis ask the Vatican to build a solar farm? Pope Francis last year asked the Vatican to study developing the area into a vast solar farm, hoping to put into practice his preaching about the need to transition away from fossil fuels and find clean, carbon-neutral energy sources. Pope Leo XIV visited the site in June and affirmed that he intended to see Francis' vision through. Does Vatican City have solar power? Yes. Vatican City has joined Albania, Bhutan, Nepal, Paraguay, Iceland, Ethiopia and the Democratic Republic of Congo to become one of just eight countries in the world to generate 100% of its electricity from renewable sources. Several church organizations around the world are making the move to solar. How will the Vatican's new energy system work? According to the Vatican's press office, the installation will apply the most advanced solutions currently available, balancing clean energy generation with the preservation of agricultural use, the region's hydrogeological stability, and the protection of its cultural and archaeological heritage (ZENIT News / Rome, 08.01.).- What did Pope Francis say about solar power? "Fratello sole" or "Brother Sun" was Pope Francis' Apostolic Letter that detailed how solar power is an invitation for people around the world to make lifestyle changes to counter global warming and the "pervasive" use of fossil fuels. What did Pope Francis say about agrivoltaic energy? Citing Pope Francis's <<Laudato Si'>>, Gallagher reminded listeners that access to clean, renewable energy remains elusive for many across the globe, and that while progress has been made, systemic change is still slow. The agrivoltaic project is one of those "good practices" Pope Francis called for in his encyclical a decade ago. Why did the Holy See build an agrivoltaic system in Santa Maria di Galeria? On July 31, at the historic Palazzo Borromeo, the Holy See and the Italian Republic signed a landmark agreement to build an agrivoltaic system in Santa Maria di Galeria. More than a technical feat, the initiative is a spiritual and diplomatic gesture--anchored in the conviction that caring for creation is a moral imperative.
